Teaching Statement

I believe that education is the only solution to all our misery, it affects our society across time and space whether it is at primary level or at Doctorate level. I always wants to be a part of it, whether it is the process of learning as a student or as a faculty. I visualizes that design in present context should have a multidisciplinary approach to combat the real problems of our society, governance system and environment. I love teaching because it is a unstoppable learning experience which always works in both the directions.

I am a firm believer of the hindi saying "Vidya ek aisa dhan hai jo batne se badta hai", it means knowledge is the only wealth which grows when shared.
